

Another Girl Is the sun just another star in the sky / Is the moon just an ordinary satellite / Well it used to be obvious but now, since you said goodbye I've had my doubts, 'cause when I see you walking around / You're just another girl / Just another girl / This is just another day in a lonely world / And you're just another girl / Did I love you like I've never loved before / Did you say you'd be mine forevermore / Well I used to think I was kinda smart, but that was before you broke my heart, and now wherever you are / chorus / Where did you go / How do I get you back into my life / I can't stand it anymore / chorus We Suck (At Breaking Up) I know she's no good for me / All my friends can clearly see / She's no better off it's true / I'm so wrong for her it hurts me too / You keep askin' why, well it's complicated, but I'll give it a try / Why are we together, 'cause we couldn't break up, we couldn't break up, we couldn't break up / Why are we together, 'cause we couldn't break up / I'd cry and she'd come over, she'd cry and I'd come over / So why are we together, 'cause we suck at breakin' up / There's no line she hasn't tried / I myself have cheated twice / Don't deserve you, so cliché / Not ready for commitment, worked for a day / I'd jump off a cliff but she'd probably end up coming with / chorus / It ain't like bein' with her is a living hell / But it don't help that I'm under your spell / How am I supposed to clear my head / When I'd much rather be with you instead / If you've got a better way, better hurry up, 'cause today's our wedding day / chorus Up Comes The Sun Up comes the sun and the spell is broken / Up comes the sun and the die is cast / Gone is the moon and the light is blinding / Gone is the moon and I'm fading fast / The only one, the only one, was right here then up comes the sun / The only one, not just anyone, we had it then up comes the sun / Up comes the sun and the world is over / Up comes the sun and you go home / Gone is the night when the light was blinding / Gone is the night and I'm alone / chorus / Press a button, flip a switch, I'll do whatever I must do / Just bring me back in time to be with you / Up comes the sun and my heart is broken / Up comes the sun and I'm fading fast / chorus Rad Baby Jenny I've been thinkin' of gettin' rid of my Jenny for a long, long time / She's been cheatin' and giving me no lovin', only bad bad lines / But she's so hot she's smokin' and I'm so not it stings / So it don't make sense to pretend I could find me a better thing (The way I rationalize) / My Rad Baby Jenny's been a bad baby Jenny so I wouldn't get a penny for her anyway / My Rad Baby Jenny's been a bad baby Jenny so I wouldn't get a penny for her anyway / I've been cryin', it's been so damn lonely in my cold, cold bed / She's been leavin', the only place that I could find her's in my empty head / But I'm got no alternative, no-one wants to trade / So I'm better off pretending that I have got it made (The way I justify) / chorus / Can you believe some guy just offered me a Derek Jeter card / Well I threw it in his face, you see, I could never trade my heart / So I've been beggin', hangin' on to my Jenny by a thin, thin thread / She's been stayin', though she won't let me forget she could be gone instead / And I'm stuck in the middle, I love her, and it shows / That I don't have the nerve to leave her / So I'm paying through the nose (the way I figure it) / chorus If Only If only I was tall, if only I was young, if only it was over, if only we'd begun / If only I was hot, if only you were cold, if only I could let go, if only I could fold / If only you were right, if only you were wrong, if only time stood still, if only time moved on / If only I could cry, if only you were here, if only somehow I would only disappear / If only I would learn, if only I was blind, if only bridges burned, if I only lost my mind / If only life were long, if only I was free, if only I was strong, if only you would see / (When were we over, When did we say goodbye / I never said goodbye) / When were we over, where was I / If only I would beg, if only I would plead, if only you could tell, it's only you I need / If only I would change, if only you would find, it's only in a name, it's only in your mind / If only it made sense, if only it could be, if only that was then, if only this was me / chorus / Why am I holding on when all I know is gone / No there's no free rewind, no going round in time / Why am I looking back, I can't stop looking back / What do I think I'll see in the mirror but me / chorus Don't Love Me So Much Do me a favor, don't love me so much / 'Cause it hurts so badly everytime we touch / You keep going in and out now, messing with my mind / Planting seeds of doubt now, baby, all the time / If this is love, I hate to see hate / Lately you've been driving me crazy / You keep telling me you're worth the wait / But I've got another idea for you baby / Don't Love Me So Much / Don't Love Me So Much / Do me a favor, don't take my hand / 'Cause when you leave again tomorrow, my heart won't understand / And when you come back the next day, here we go 'round again / It seems like you're the only one who's having any fun then / If this is love, girl, I don't know, is there a different direction we could go / You say love is supposed to flow, but this is more like a horror show so / chorus / Is this revenge for something I did to you in a past life / Do you think there's an easier way that I can make it right / chorus What I Didn't Say Wait a minute, won't you please, what did you say your name was? / Just a minute, talk to me, where did you say you came from / I've got a feeling about you, and I don't want to watch you walk away / Yeah this feeling about you, I don't want to look back and regret what I didn't say / Wait a minute, please don't go, tell me about your wildest dreams / Just a minute, I need to know, are you as lovely inside as you seem? / chorus / Would you take a walk with me, there's a little cafe just down the street / Give me a chance, 'cause I believe there's a hidden reason why we're supposed to meet / Wait a minute, won't you please, somehow my heart recognizes you / Just a minute, talk to me, do you feel the same connection too? / chorus / Wait a minute, won't you please, what did you say your name was? Normal I wanna be weird, I wanna be fked up / I wanna be moody, I wanna be a selfish bastard / I wanna be rude, I wanna be inconsiderate / I wanna make fun of people for things that aren't their fault / I wanna be normal, just your average Joe Joe Joe / I wanna be normal, just a regular shmoe shmoe shmoe / I wanna be normal, where the standards are low low low / I wanna be just like your new boyfriend, wo-ho / I wanna be a man, the kind that's insecure / The kind that gets jealous, the kind that can't handle intimacy / I wanna watch football, ignore you on Sundays / Eat bad buffalo wings and flirt with the teenage waitress / chorus / Don't keep telling me 'bout my responsibility to be some kind of Gandhi now that we broke up / I can't help but see his blatant mediocrity / You said you could do better than me, well that ain't trading up / I wanna smoke dope, get stupid and hungry / Eat Ranch Doritos until I have love handles / I wanna be broke, I wanna owe your brother money / And I wanna have sex that's four minutes and forgettable / chorus Falling Back For Nothing So your true love up and left you / What's a codependent girl to do / Cry your eyes out, crawl on all fours, eat enough cookie dough to choke a small horse / Guess it never occurred to you that you're better off without Mister Heartbreak On A Stick / But no, you'd rather wallow and whine and waste everybody's time as you theatrically sink like a brick / Is that your fallback plan, to fall apart? They don't call it falling back for nothing / You could skydive, you could ping pong, or smoke a bowl through a bitchin' muscle beach bong / You could hitchhike to Colorado and make X-rated angels in the snow / But that would be too much fun, you wouldn't wanna have fun / You'd rather squat on your little pity pot / Go on and curl up and die 'cause you've already decided your pain is all that you've got / chorus
